Subject: Local Public Safety Coordinating Council

Attached are applications for two individuals that I am recommending for membership to our LPSCC.

State law requires that a local defense attorney be on the Council, and we currently have a vacancy. I am recommending Carol Fredrick. Ms. Fredrick is a member of our EBDMI Policy Team, and has worked well with the local public safety partners for many years.

Although not required by law, we have traditionally included a Parole & Probation Officer on our Council. I am recommending Katy Harmon for membership. Katy is a long-standing employee who continually performs at a very high level. Katy is also assigned as our Assessment Officer as part of our Justice Reinvestment Program, and is therefore in a key position.

Both Ms. Fredrick and Ms. Harmon will be excellent additions to our Council.

Thank you for your consideration.

Ted

As a Parole & Probation Officer, I'm interested in serving on the LPSCC to further educate myself about local public safety policy, and to participate in discussion and coordination of policy and programs. My current assignment is to complete assessments on defendants and submit a sentencing recommendation to the Court. This assignment is part of the local State Justice Reinvestment Program.
