On December 14, 2015 a public notice was published in the Newberg Graphic and the McMinnville News Register announcing openings on the solid waste advisory committee. I also hand delivered applications to a few community members in Yamhill County.

As in the past we did not receive any applications generated through the news media.

We did receive back a completed application from Joe Cook. Joe has previously been a member of the SWAC representing the haulers. He has since retired and is now applying for a position as "Persons who reside in or own real property within the county in which the regional disposal site is located." (ORS 459.320 (c))

Joe has experience with this committee and knows the background of Riverbend Landfill.

Staff recommends appointing Joe Cook to the Solid Waste Advisory Committee.

Re: SWAC Position

Steve Farley's term on the Yamhill County Solid Waste Advisory Committee (SWAC) has expired. Steve Farley was asked to be a part of the committee due to the proximity of his home to Riverbend landfill. His knowledge of the area around Riverbend Landfill has helped the committee address concerns about the landfill, from a citizen's point of view

Mr. Farley is willing to serve another three-year term on the SWAC. Staff recommends his reappointment based on his conscientious participation in the past.

ACTION:

The Board needs to decide whether to reappoint Steve Farley for another three year term on the SWAC (staff's recommendation), or advertise the opening and interview applicants.

*In October 2015, the Solid Waste Department advertised a SWAC opening. The ad ran four weeks. No applications were received.

Re: SWAC Position

John Arand's term on the Yamhill County Solid Waste Advisory Committee (SWAC) has expired.

Mr. Arand is willing to serve another three-year term on the SWAC. Staff recommends his reappointment based on his past experiences and knowledge about solid waste issues.
